Kansas City suffered greatly as a result of the flood last June, and the delegates will, in support of their plea, say that be-cause of the havoc wrought to big busi-ness interests, the city now faces a crisis in its history, and it is badly in need of aid at the hands of the Government. aid at the hands of the Government.
They will base their action upon the report of the Board of Engineers sent here by the War Department recently to investigate the situation. The committee includes C. D. Parker and E. M. Ladies' Dinner Gown, Consisting of La-cies' Fancy Waist, High or Low Neck, No. 5230, and Ladies' Skirt, No. 5031— Brown has always been looked upon as a color suitable for street wear only, but this season it has been so very popular that some of the evening toilets have been made with a touch of brown in place of the inevitable black.

9230-Ladies' Fancy Waist (High or Low Neck). 9003-Ladles' Skirt.

at the lower edge, where the fullness is adjusted on cuffs that are shaped to match the neck trimming. The sieeves reach about half way between elbow and wrist. If desired, the waist may be made highneck with a round yoke of lace and a standing collar, the pattern providing the proper shaping for these parts.

The skirt has a narrow front gore or pred with two tucks on each side. They are narrow at the belt and increase in width toward the hem, adding to the sweep at the floor. The stitching in the tucks terminates at the top of the flounce. A circular side portion is fitted smoothly around the waist and hips with small darts. It is given full length, and the flounce may either be applied or finished to form its lower portion. The flounce may be gathered or shirred at the top and finished with a lace band. It graduates in depth toward the back.

The back gore is very full at the waist and shirred closely into a narrow space. It falls in long, graceful folds to the floor and trains slightly. A band of velvet at the foot is surmounted by lace insertion. Costumes in this mode are made of China silk, foulard, taffeta, organdy, wool veiling, albatross or voile, and trimmed with contrasting material.

To make the waist in the medium size will require two and one-quarter yards of raterial 44 inches wide, with one yard of lace and three-quarters yard of velvet. The pattern, No. 920a, is cut in sizes for a 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inch waist measure.
